COURSE EVALUATION SYSTEM

The University uses a web-based course evaluation system. Students must complete an online course evaluation at or near the conclusion of each course. Students will be notified when course evaluations are available to be completed.