

COUNSELING SERVICES

Students who require counseling services are encouraged to use resources available to them in their respective communities. Students may also contact the counseling staff at Bay Path University Health Services for assistance and referrals. Counselors are available during normal business hours. If an emergency arises at any other time, students may contact staff on duty at their campus location or Campus Public Safety at the main campus.