

FORENSIC STUDIES (FNS)

FNS 100: Introduction to Forensic Studies (3 credits)

This course, which is required of all forensic studies majors, will introduce students to field of forensics and to the range of sources of evidence used in criminal and civil cases. Enrollment may be limited.

FNS 498: Forensic Studies Internship (3 credits)

This internship offers the student an opportunity to work in the field of forensics in her sophomore year. This course is graded Pass/Fail.

Prerequisite: A minimum CGPA of 2.0 and approval of the department chair.

FNS 499: Forensic Studies Internship (6 credits)

This internship offers the student an opportunity to work in the field of forensics in her sophomore year. This course is graded Pass/Fail.

Prerequisite: A minimum CGPA of 2.0 and approval of the department chair.