

ALCOHOL AND DRUG COUNSELING, MS

Master of Science in Developmental Psychology

Degree requirements for the Alcohol and Drug Counseling concentration are as follows:

Code	Title	Hours
PSY 501	Human Lifespan Development	3
PSY 535	Professional Counseling Orientation and Ethical Practice	3
PSY 620	Psychopathology and the Diagnostic Process	3
PSY 660	Social and Cultural Foundations	3
PSY 662	Counseling Theory and Practice	3
PSY 663	Career Development Theory and Practice	3
PSY 665	Group Dynamics and Mental Health Counseling	3
PSY 670	Fieldwork	3
PSY 679	Fieldwork II	3
Electives ¹		9
Total Credits Required:		36

¹ Students must select 15 credits from the following list: PSY 531 Human Sexuality, PSY 540 Individual and Family Treatment of Substance Abuse Disorders, PSY 550 Family Systems, PSY 590 Trauma & Crisis Intervention, PSY 625 Applied Research Methods and Program Evaluation, PSY 654 Drugs, Medication, and Society, PSY 657 Counseling and Co-Occurring Disorders, PSY 658 Psychological Assessment in Counseling, PSY 665 Group Dynamics and Mental Health Counseling, PSY 671 Theories and Models of Trauma and Attachment, PSY 672 Neurobiology of Trauma.