

SPECIAL EDUCATION MODERATE DISABILITIES LEVELS 5-12/LANGUAGE AND LITERACY (INITIAL) LICENSURE CONCENTRATION, MS

Master of Science in Education

The Master of Science in Education is designed to prepare professionals for careers in education and related fields. The degree includes options for individuals with a bachelor's degree that leads to careers in education in pre-school through secondary levels. While the M.S. in Education seeks to provide graduates with the skills, knowledge, and creativity needed for success in the classroom, community, and organizations, the specializations, certifications and licensure provide depth in a particular area of educational practice, policy, curriculum, and state-of-the-art inclusionary best practices.

Coursework for the Moderate Disabilities program provides practitioners with age-appropriate strategies for education students with disabilities in the least restrictive environment. The program focuses on current issues in special education, best practices for inclusive education, including law nondiscriminatory assessment, issues of cultural and linguistic diversity, classroom and behavioral adaptations, integration of new technologies and collaboration with families and service providers. This program includes a yearlong practicum.

Program Requirements

The Master of Science in Education degree with the concentration in Moderate Disabilities Levels 5-12/Language and Literacy, Moderate Disabilities Levels PreK-8/Language and Literacy, and Severe Disabilities: All Levels/Language and Literacy all require the completion of 39 credits hours and a practicum or internship experience to meet degree requirements. Students who complete a concentration with the Language and Literacy coursework will also earn a certificate in Language and Literacy.
