

DIVISION OF RESEARCH AND ACADEMIC RESOURCES

The Division of Research and Academic Resources includes the Center for Student Scholarship, Research, and Creative Work, the Center for Teaching and Learning, Hatch Learning Commons, the T. Marc Futter Program for Ethics in Leadership and Integrity in Action, the Institutional Review Board (IRB), the Center for Online and Digital Learning and Student Academic Support Services, consisting of the Bashevkin Center for Academic Excellence and Accessibility Services.

Center for Online and Digital Learning

The Center for Online & Digital Learning provides dedicated teaching and learning support services for faculty and students engaged in online learning and technology-enhanced learning at Bay Path. This includes formally orienting new faculty and students to online learning, instructional design services for faculty, supporting faculty and students' work with educational technologies like the Canvas and the iPads, as well as support for the University's digital badging program.

Center for Student Scholarship, Research, and Creative Work

The Division encourages and supports undergraduate and graduate students in all majors and programs to undertake special research projects, scholarly activities, or creative works under the guidance of a faculty mentor. Students may apply for individual grants to support their research. This may include supplies, materials, journals and publications and travel. Students who receive these grants are required to present their findings at the University's annual Academic Achievement Day.

Center for Teaching and Learning

The Bay Path University Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) provides resources and confidential services to all Bay Path instructors to support educational excellence in on-ground, hybrid and online courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Through web resources, events and consultations, we strive to offer faculty development opportunities that are relevant, easy to access, time efficient, and high quality.

Hatch Learning Commons

The newly renovated Hatch Learning Commons houses both library services and the center online & digital learning. It offers an inviting atmosphere, not only for individual study, but also for collaborative learning in our group study rooms. We have an up-to-date collection of over 500,000 items, including a vast collection online resources accessible 24/7 from any location, which have been carefully selected to support your academic success. Bay Path students may also borrow recreational items such as popular fiction books or DVDs.

T. Marc Futter Program for Ethics in Leadership and Integrity in Action

Funded by the generosity of benefactor T. Marc Futter, the Program for Ethics in Leadership and Integrity in Action is a University-wide initiative, incorporated throughout the undergraduate curriculum. Based on the belief that ethics is reflected in both words and actions, the Program includes an intense ethics discussion for all incoming students at New Student Orientation, followed by the signing of the Honor Pledge at fall convocation and an ethics speaker in the spring. Ethical concepts are infused throughout the curriculum in all majors and examine the basic notions of "right" and "wrong" in contemporary society. Students develop and define their individual standards of ethical behavior relevant to their personal and professional lives.

Institutional Review Board (IRB)

The Bay Path Institutional Review Board works with students and faculty to ensure that their research complies with federal regulations for the protection of human subjects.

Office of Accessibility Services
