DOMESTIC STUDY

Washington Semester Program

The Washington Semester Program at American University is the oldest academic field experience program in Washington, D.C. and provides students with an unrivaled experience including a seminar, an internship, and a supervised research project or an elective from the AU course offerings. The program is staffed by American University's full-time faculty to assure academic rigor. Students are guaranteed housing in the University's residence halls with university supervision and have access to all university facilities. Tuition is paid at the regular Bay Path University rate. Bay Path University seniors, juniors, and second-semester sophomores are eligible to apply for the program, and candidates are selected on the basis of their scholastic achievement and readiness and ability to do independent work. Application should be sent to the Administrative Assistant to the Dean of Undergraduate Studies. Enrollment in the program is limited.
